Coffman to attend Language Village

Spencer Coffman, son of Marie and John Coffman of Farwell, is taking part in the Concordia Language Villages program by attending Al-Waha, the Arabic Language Village located in Sandstone. Coffman received the Global Citizen Scholarship sponsored by STARTALK.

Through the language program, Coffman will experience a simulated visit to another country and will be issued a passport, exchange currency, will adopt a new name and will be immersed in the language and culture of another country.
